

NCA HONOURS RETIREES AND LONG SERVING STAFF

The National Communications Authority (NCA) has honoured three (3) retirees and twenty-nine (29) long serving staff at an event held on Thursday, 20th May 2022 at the NCA Tower in Accra.

The retirees included Mr. Henry Kanor, a former Deputy Director General in charge of Technical Operations, Madam Margaret Abba-Donkor, a former Principal Manager with the Cyber Security Division and Mr. Henry Obuobisah, a former Head of Transport. They served for 21, 17 and 22 years respectively. At the same ceremony, staff who served for 15 and 10 years respectively were also recognized.

In his remarks, the Director General of NCA, Mr. Joe Anokye commended the retirees and staff for their meritorious service to the Authority. He noted that it is through their inputs that the NCA has come thus far and continues to thrive as Ghana's Communications Regulator. Mr. Anokye went on to urge serving staff to remain focused and give their best in their various roles and endeavours.

On his part, Dr. Charles Amoah-Wilson, Director for Human Resource said the Authority
